“ I was Billy's first grade teacher. I remember our year together fondly, as his parents and I took a frightened little boy with a new home and surroundings, and tried to assure him that everything was going to be alright! He was such a small little guy, he often would hide in a locker, which became a new normal. I loved how curious he was about learning, as he soaked up everything like a little sponge! I know he kept me young that year, as his high energy was contagious!

I've always wondered over the years, how he was doing. I would like to extend my sympathy to your family. I am very thankful that Billy was in my life.

“ Sorry to hear of your loss Harley & Julie. I remember when I brought a pair of Jason's cowboy boots over for Billy and he wore them all the time. I shared this with Allen too.
