“ Having grown up in Carlos, my mother Louise Hillmer became friends with Vange. Over the years my son Nathan and myself would mow her lawn. She always liked when we came in and visited with her. One time she wanted to demonstrate her new "First Alert" call button she wore. I told her maybe she shouldn't ,but she pushed it. A person came on the phone and asked her if she needed help. Vange said."I don't need help, I'm just showing a friend how this works". I did get to visit with her over the years when she moved to the Parkers Prairie. My sympathy to all her family.
