“ I have fun memories of Jen from riding the school bus together, swimming in Maple Lake, growing up in Forada, playing baseball with the town kids, then attending tech college together in 1984. We skipped school one afternoon in the winter. It was icy, and we spent the afternoon whipping shi$#%ies in parking lots all afternoon in Jen's little Honda, laughing the whole time. Our teacher was not happy with us when we returned the next day, but Jen said, "I'd do it again!" We all called her PeeWee then, she might've been just a little squirt, but she had a huge love for life, fun, laughter, and humor. She lit up any room she walked into. Jen was the only girl I knew loved to tinker around in her parents' garage, she could take apart and rebuild almost anything. She will leave an empty hole in this world, but Heaven gained a beautiful angel. Rest in peace my friend.
