

Mildred Miller

Mildred L. Miller was born on September 5, 1920, at home in Kintire Township, MN, to Ray and Martha (Carlson) Roxberg. She was baptized and confirmed at Immanuel Lutheran Church in Belview. She attended District 28 East Country School and graduated from Belview High School. She attended the Minneapolis School of Business and worked as a secretary in Minneapolis and Redwood Falls. Later in life she worked as a Nurses Aid at Parkview Home in Belview. On March 7, 1945, she was united in marriage to Raymond Miller at Immanuel Lutheran Church in Belview. They made their home on a farm southwest of Belview for five years before moving to a farm south of Delhi where they lived for 37 years. They moved to Lake Ida near Alexandria in 1987. Millie was active in church life in Immanuel Lutheran in Belview and at Calvary Lutheran in Alexandria. She served faithfully in Sunday School and the Ladies Aid in Belview and was especially fond of her friends in Priscilla Circle at Calvary Lutheran. Both Millie and Raymond enjoyed farming and living close to the land. Side by side on the farm, they grew much of their food, canned many fruits and vegetables, and shared the abundant produce with others. At Lake Ida she was Raymond's right hand, helping him grow beautiful geraniums and begonias. Their love for each other and Millie's dedication to his care allowed them to live independently at Lake Ida for many years. Millie died on April 21, 2010 at Knute Nelson Home in Alexandria. She is survived by her son Larry (Barbara) of Lakeville and daughter Linda (Richard) Seime of Rochester; grandchildren Jennifer Miller, Laura (Manny)
