

Myrtle Forster

OBITUARY Myrtle E, Forster was born on December 22, 1918 in Carlos Township, MN, the daughter of Daniel and Emma (Fiss) Kingston. She was raised and attended grade school in the Carlos area. She married Michael Forster on September 23, 1941 at St. Nicholas Parish in Belle River. Together they farmed and raised their family near Carlos, MN. She was a member of St. Nicholas Catholic Church where she was involved with St. Barbara's Mission Circle and the Christian Mothers. She was also a member of the Carlos Senior Citizens where she volunteered on the popcorn wagon and received the Most Outstanding Senior Citizen Award in 1990. Myrtle was always active in her younger years. She liked mixed doubles bowling in Osakis, gardening, and attending summer parades with her husband and his horses. She also liked listening to old-time music, the rosary and gospel hymns on the radio. Myrtle enjoyed a night out to eat and time to reminisce with family and friends. She will be missed by those who knew and loved her. Myrtle E. Forster died on Monday, April 2, 2012 at Broen Memorial Home in Fergus Falls at the age of 93.
