“ So sad, my mom worked at Yeutter Bakery, and Norman was not only talented but a very dedicated person with compassion and true decency to all, he is a true example of what we should all be like and will be missed.

I have very fond memories of the employees at the bakery. I used to spend days there with my Grandma and Norman.

“ We send sympathies to Norm's family members. A pretty special man that I came to know thru the bakery, but really considered him to be a friend. We still talked whenever we would happen to meet in Alex. somewhere in recent years Norm never changed. Was always a gentle sole that never talked about himself or any of his problems. Instead would always ask about me. I really liked Norm and am sorry to hear he has left us.

Have to tell you a story.....my job was overwhelming and consumed every day in a hectic whirl. Some days (probably too often)I would call our bakery order in after closing hours, and I would have to call Norm at home to give him our order which could be substantial....sometimes 80-120 dozen of varied items. Several times I think I got him out of bed to accept our order. But he never complained and still spoke with a smile in his voice. And, by the way....every order was always complete & correct the next day!! He saved me many times.....Thank You Norm! What a gentleman he was!

May God Bless him & give him gentle peace!

We send our love,

John & Carolyn Chlian

“ I am very sorry to hear of Norman's passing. I worked at Yeutter Bakery during my middle and high school years along with my mom Geneva Roers. We worked hard but we also had fun. I miss the smells of the Lemon Napoleons and the best English Muffin Bread by far. Sending condolences to your family!

Thank you for the kinds words. This past year I asked Norman for his recipe for the hard rolls. He said it was too complicated and needed to proof correctly. That's as far as it went. His recipes. Sweet Norman.
