“ My heart goes out to your family. I am so sorry for your loss. What pain hurts worse than the pain of losing someone that you love? Rob will be dearly missed. Again, I am so sorry. Though the pain you're feeling must seem unbearable, please remember that you are not alone. Psalms 46:1 says, "God is our refuge and strength, a help that is readily found in times of distress." Pray to Him for strength. Weep to Him when there are no words. One of the poets of the Bible said at Psalms 56:8, "You keep track of my wandering. Do collect my tears in your skin bottle." You see, God understands your pain and He cares for you very much (1 Peter 5:7). And He will really help you get through this difficult time (Isaiah 41:10).

“ It just seems so unreal that Rob is gone. I have so many good memories of times we spent as kids, teenagers and later life. A cousin and like a brother. Im fortunate that I made a recent trip from Missouri to Minnesota and we spent time alone talking about life and memories. Its a great personal loss to me. May God bring peace and rest.

Wow, I will wait to watch the tribute video with my wife but I will always remember the times we had with Rob in the late 70s in California. I had not seen him in years but spoke over the phone a few times. As soon as I saw that picture, that gentle and kind look on his face, that's the Rob I will always remember. Shelly, thanks for calling me to let me know about his passing and I am truly sorry for your loss. If you ever need to say hello or talk about the our times with Rob give us a call anytime. Rob was one of very few friends that when we moved back to Iowa we kept in touch and visited him every time we got back to California. The only other people that I can say that about were all relatives so I guess I can say that Rob was almost like a family member to us. We'll miss you buddy!!!

Rob and I were next door neighbors in Bakersfield California before he left for Minnesota. We were both a lot younger then, but in the photos I still see the Rob I knew. He was a big guy with a good heart and a gentle spirit, and I enjoyed his company. Shelly, I am very sorry for your loss. Thank you for contacting me.

I cant believe he has gone. I spoke to him a couple of months ago when his mom passed away. I never dreamed it would be our last conversation. We had some great times here in Missouri and out in California. I am just stunned. I feel so bad for his wife and Donna, Johnny and Debbie. I think they have gone through enough. MayGod Bless all of you.

*Love,
