“ Thoughts and prayers for Dorothy, Bret, Kim and their families. So many outstanding memories growing up with the Pederson family. I will never forget my nickname from Bob, "Kurtree," as I would often hear either hunting, fishing or playing pool in the basement.

“ My father, C. Leonard Pearson worked with Bob for many years selling American Republic Insurance. I remember Bob as being larger than life and that he could talk with anyone! I had no idea he lived in Alexandria where I also live!

May God give Dorothy, Brent and Kimberly and the whole family peace during this difficult time.
