

Scott Loken

SCOTT M. LOKEN Scott Matthew Loken was born on June 2, 1986 in Alexandria, MN, the son of Kevin and Connie (Iverson) Loken. Scott was baptized and confirmed at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Alexandria. He graduated from Jefferson High School in 2004 and then continued his education by graduating in the Concrete and Masonry Program at the Alexandria Technical College. After college he moved to Owatonna, MN and began working for Met-Con Company as a bricklayer for the last 4 years. Scott met the love of his life Megan Hansen through friends in July of 2003 and together they lived in Owatonna, MN. Scott liked most sports and played basketball, baseball, and tennis in high school. He also was on a bowling league and liked to golf and fish. One of Scott's favorite past times was building and running demolition derby cars during the Douglas County Fair and also watching the races at the Viking Speedway. Scott played horseshoes with his friend Tony Sides and recently started playing ping-pong. Scott was a prankster and liked to tease his little cousins. He had a good sense of humor and was kindly nicknamed Shrek by the children of his friends. He was a kind and loving son, brother, nephew, and boyfriend. Scott will be missed by those who knew and loved him. Scott M. Loken died on Sunday, December 7, 2008 as the result of an automobile accident in Fairbault, MN, at the age of 22 years. He is survived by his parents Kevin and Connie Loken of Alexandria; brothers David Loken and girlfriend Laura Hoke of Fargo, ND; Jeff Loken of Alexandria; sister Katie Loken of Alexandria; love of his life Megan Hansen of
