Stanley Edward Koep was born on March 8, 1956 in Parkers Prairie, MN, to Harold Senior and Blanche Koep. Stanley attended St. Mary's Catholic School & Jefferson Senior High, where he then joined the Navy. His children fondly remember him teaching them to drive "a little before it was legal", the fun family vacation in Turks and Caicos, and all of their camping and zoo trips. His grandchildren will greatly miss their grandpa who always had Cheetos, M&Ms and root beer waiting for them.

“ Stan was such a great man and it breaks my heart to know he is no longer with us. When I was younger and had no family around and a lack of friends in my life, Stan always helped me stay positive. He helped me rediscover God and get my faith back. He will definitely missed by many people.
